

Gov. Bill Ritter, Jr.

HELP AND OPPORTUNITY FAIR FOR WORKING FAMILIES

Tuesday, June 2nd

5 to 7 PM

East Side of the State Capitol

Gov. Bill Ritter, state agencies, nonprofits, and other service providers will host a free help and opportunity fair for working families

Talk to counselors and find information and resources for:

- Unemployment Insurance
- Foreclosure prevention
- Health care
- Utility assistance
- Home weatherization and repair
- Food resources
- Job training
- Legal assistance
- Purchase advice for new homeowners

Gov. Ritter will also sign into law legislation helping responsible homeowners avoid foreclosure, providing additional unemployment benefits to Coloradans, ensuring that hard-working families do not improperly lose unemployment or workers' compensation benefits, and several more.

In case of rain: The fair will take place inside on the 1st floor of the Capitol building. Enter through the north side entrance.
